“ My sincere condolences to Annmarie's family & friends. Growing up, our families lived next door "in the country" on 159th St, which was then Route 7 in Lockport. Annmarie was like a little sister to me.

We visited churches with the Gorecki family on Holy Thursday and celebrated afterward with a visit to White Castle. In the last decades, we talked to each other about those carefree days gone by as we caught up on our families. Annmarie was so proud of her wonderful family and the activities of all.

This past Holy Thursday, April 6th, I called Annmarie. It appeared her mailbox was full. I left her an e-mail, hoping to talk to her. Needless to say, Our Dear Lord had called her home.

May Annmarie rejoice in eternal life with her husband & son, Mom & Dad, and brother. God bless Annmarie's beautiful soul as she joins them in paradise.

“ I came to know Annmarie thru ExxonMobil Retiree Club and the Ladies Book Club. We shared many good times with Retiree trips. She always was ready to have a good book to suggest for us to read. Myself and all the ladies of the Book Club will miss you Annmarie.

“ Annmarie and Steve were friends of ours from the 1970's in Lockport, Illinois. I babysat for Mike and when Dave started working at Mobil Oil both of our families remained friends in Channahon. Annmarie was a good friend and coworker at Joliet Valves in Minooka. May her family find peace at this difficult time. Dave and Linda Fisher
