“ From the day I moved in next door to Caroline in 2006, until the day I moved out in 2021, she was very kind and hospitable. We spent more than a few afternoons chatting on her back porch and we even attended a couple of local events together over the years. She kept an eye out on my dog and house when I worked long hours and I helped her occasionally around her house. Her kindness and her laughter will be missed and I'm extremely grateful for the time we spent together.
