“ Dear Lindsey, John and Ben.....I really feel your pain. I am so happy that I got to know your mom. She was a special person. She had such a wonderful personality.....kind and loving and at times really funny. She touched everyone she met. I am really going to miss her. But I also can say that I am so happy that she is out of her pain. Try to remember and keep alive all of the funny moments you can remember having with her. My condolences to your family. Love Carmi
