

Corinne M. Frame

July 26, 1933 - November 29, 2013

Hello Family and Friends,

I'm writing to let you know of the passing of our beloved mother and friend Corinne. She fought a brave fight with cancer of her bone marrow (MDS), while enduring the struggles of Parkinson's.

She was a strong, fiercely independent woman who could decorate a room, roast a turkey or change a tire. (Genetic traits we are proud to have inherited). Grandma Corky was surrounded by her children, grandchildren and now great grandchild until the very end. She will rest in peace next to her husband of 41 years, Robert.

She loved all of you and asked about all of you always. And she told us, "take care of and love each other-it all goes by in the blink of an eye...and I'll be watching".

Only if you wish, you may donate to the Parkinson Foundation or the MDS Foundation in her name.

Visitation for Corinne M. Frame will be held on Sunday, December 1, 2013 from 4:00 PM until Prayer Service Begins at 7:15 PM with Fr. Jim Henigan officiating. Interment Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Worth, IL. on Monday, December 2, 2013.

Thank you all for your kind words and support through a very difficult time. Love and Peace and Health to all of you.

“ I will miss this very sweet lady who I had the pleasure of knowing and working with. Corky was sweet, funny and would do anything for you and ask nothing in return. With Corky, what you saw is what you got...nothing fake or put on, just a sincere lady. Rest easy Corky.....Heaven just gained a fantastic angel.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Corky and working with her for several years...what a funny, classy and sweet lady. I was at Big Lots one day checking on chaise lounge chairs that were on sale, I sat down on one and suddenly I heard someone say "what time are the drinks being served" and sitting in the other chaise lounge was Corky. We laughed and chatted for for about 10 minutes. A sales rep came over and asked if she could help us and we both, at the same time, said "NO. we're fine". Wat I loved the most about Corky, and there were so many reasons, was that what you saw is what she was..nothing put on, nothing fake, no false pretenses...just a kind, incredibly funny lady who would do anything for you and ask nothing in return. God just embraced and added an incredible angel to his Heavenly Home....the struggles are over Corky, you're time for rest is here...you will be missed and I thank you for the gift of knowing and laughing with you!

God Bless you...my thoughts and prayers to Corky's family. May the memories of this incredible lady bring you strength and courage.
