“ My Dawn, you fought a long hard battle with all you had. You are now a soldier in God's army. I will miss you tremendously, Your cheerfulness, and those big warm, and loving hugs. I am sharing this story, because it always made everyone laugh. Dawn was just a little booger around, 2 or 3 yrs. old. She was born in the old neighborhood where everyone knew everyone. I was holding her one day outside of my home, and a neighbor happened to pass by and went to take Dawn's hand while she was telling her how sweet and beautiful she was. Dawn, just being a baby, pulled her hand away and said to the woman, "Weave me Wone poo poo face"! I had to hold in my laughter as the woman left kinda startled, but she took it well and understood. I remember that day as though it were yesterday. It's something I will never forget.

My heart goes out to her mom & Dad and children. May God bless all of you, and keep you in His care.

All my love, Aunt Moe

“ My condolences to the entire family. My daughter spoke very highly of Dawn. She opened her home to Selena when she'd visit Tom as if she was her own child too. I will continue to do the same for Tom, always.

*Sincerely,
Amanda (Selena's mom)*
