If there was something that you needed and she had it, it was yours. A true conversationalist, she loved to chit chat and at the same time she had a listening ear. She enjoyed reading, watching the Lifetime Channel and baking cookies with her grandchildren. She had the knack for staying connected and enjoyed her monthly "Thursdays at Cemeno's" in Joliet with her high school friends. Diana also loved Country Western Dancing with Lynwood. She was a receptionist with Humana Health

Insurance Company for many years until retirement and also worked at the Empress Casino, Joliet.
