“ Uncle Dwane,

All my childhood memories are filled with you and your family spending time with our family at your home and ours. From the summer we built a temporary home in your yard while Dad and you built your house, to the many nights watching you, Aunt Thelma Jo and my mom and dad playing 42 and wishing I was old enough to play, you have always filled my life with joy and laughter. You raised amazing sons and daughters who reflect the kind and caring spirit of their father. The sad news you are gone from us physically, but the great news is your with Jesus now and able to touch the face of God and sit by his side in the Kingdom of Heaven! I'm sure by now, you're already playing 42 in heaven and bidding 42 "no catch 'em" with Jesus and he's scratching his head wondering how anyone could do that! Soon we will all be with you again, but until that time, you will always be in my heart! I love you Uncle Dwane! Your loving nephew, Greg White
