“ Jim you were and still are one of the best brother a girl could ask for . I love you sooo much i was literally crushed when i heard the news . You will be greatly missed by me and all my babies . Annie and Jack love you . We all know we will see you again one bro. Just keep watch over all of us and keep us safe . I always remember all the good times when we were growing up like the tape that you left for me when we were kids or when i was cheerleader for your football team when we were kids ....
I love you and miss you much brother .
