“ I met Lona at the Dresden Nuclear Station in the late 1970s. She was 39 & I was a young pup of 22 years old. Through Lona I learned that some of my most treasured friends could be found in people outside of my age range. I hadn't spoken with Lona since some time in the 1990s but I've thought of her so many times through the years. Whenever I think of her I smile. My sincere condolences to you for her loss and please remember how blessed we have all been to have had her in our lives.
