“ Adella and Ken, I was shocked and saddened upon hearing of your Mom's passing just recently. You may not remember me but I was your Dad's cousin. Although I hadn't been in touch with your Mom over the years, I will always remember her humor and her gift to chat. I'm praying for a hedge of comfort for your families. Al Marvan. “ My sincere condolences to Adella, Ken and family for the loss of your beautiful mother. May the memories of her always live in your heart to keep her spirit alive. She is always going to be with you by your side being your guardian angel. Lynda and my mom Sylvia have been friends since they were kids and this is heartbreaking because my mom just joined her in heaven on Thursday. I'm sure it was a grand reunion and the angels were singing. My prayers go out to the family. My sincerest love to you all. Lynda was a beautiful and amazing woman. All our love and prayers, Marie Marquez and Sylvia's husband, Keith Mitchell.

“ Lynda and I didn't meet until Adela was born and then not again for several years. She started coming to my holiday open house and always brought food and gifts. When her Dad needed chemo she was a huge help, picking him up from the clinic while I tended our retail business. That was a long trip for her and she stayed at the house in Chicago til I got home. She was a great help in planning the funeral since I wasn't prepared. She continued to bring items in and we had long talks on the phone. A caring person and I will miss her.
