

Patricia Rich

March 13, 1929 - August 20, 2016

Patricia A. Rich (nee Hull)

Passed peacefully the 20th of August surrounded by family in the comfort of her late Channahon residence at the age of 87 years.

Born in 1929 in Newman, IL she was the youngest of her siblings.

She will be remembered as a loving and caring mother and grandmother, a wonderful sister and a thoughtful friend.

The time Pat spent volunteering at the Channahon United Methodist Church Thrift Store and being a part of the "Ladies Aid Circle" and a member of St. Ann Catholic Church, Channahon were treasured memories for her. She also liked and collected books and spent many enjoyable hours reading them.

Preceded in death by her parents, her beloved husband, Robert and her daughter, Carol Rich.

Left to cherish her memory are her surviving three children, Karen Binkele, Dan Rich and wife, Gail and Don Rich and wife, Debbie; eight grandchildren, Gary Hively, Andrea Kleidon, Jennifer Crabb, Dawn Hanley, Donny Rich, Dani Rich, Brianna Marco, Paul Rich and Gabby Rich and thirteen great grandchildren.

In harmony with Patricia's wishes cremation rites have been accorded.

Interment services to be held at a later date.

Goodbyes are not forever, Goodbyes are not the end. They simply mean we will miss you until we meet again.

Arrangements entrusted to The Maple Funeral Home, Channahon.

“ My dear friend Pat, You will be missed more than you know. It was fun ushering with you and being around you. We had some laughs especially to be know as Laverne and Shirley or the queen of St Ann. I am so happy I got to spend some time with you at the end. I love you and will be missing you. Linda Olvera
