

Richard Scanlon Sr.

November 25, 1949 - March 21, 2023

Richard Scanlon Sr.

Of Channahon, Illinois passed away on March 21, 2023, at the age of 73. His battle with serious medical issues in recent years after the passing of his wife, Carol Ann Scanlon, showed his courage and love for his family. Despite the struggle, Richard kept his wit and humor with him, until he passed.

Richard, fondly known as Bud to those around him, met the love of his life, Carol, with whom he is now eternally with; at the age of 16 and they went on to share 54 beautiful years together, completely in love. They shared two children together; Dawn and Richard Jr.

He worked extremely hard his entire life to provide his family with the life he always dreamed of having and was very loved and appreciated by those around him.

Richard is survived by his daughter, Dawn and his son, Richard Jr. He was a proud papa of 9 grandchildren, Kyla, Faye, Anthony, Grace, Nicole, Deanna, Nina, Damian and Jennifer. He is also survived by his siblings; John, Joseph and Kathy. He adored his 4 great grandchildren; Kinley, Brayden, Lily and Aria and his faithful puppy, Riley.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Carol and his parents, Joseph and Rita Irene (nee Smith) Scanlon as well as his granddaughter, Nicole.

At Richard's request there will not be any services held, however he will be honored with a celebration of life over the summer with more details to come.
