“ Dear Cousin,
I Love You. I'm so Sad. This Just shouldn't be. I remember when we were kids and having Fun at the Christmas parties we had. I remember those Fun Times when we were young adults. Laughing , Dancing. We were So carefree, just having Fun at the clubs. Me, You , John.. Thank you for looking after me in those days! (You know what I mean..) I will treasure those memories for the rest of My Life.

Our Family here on Earth are crying with indescribable Sadness and with Broken Hearts. The Only Comfort I have in this Very Sad Time is knowing that Our Family members that left us before you, have welcomed you with Open Arms, Happiness and Hearts Full of Joy. Also And Most Important, When it was Time for you to Leave Us,

I know that your Grandpa Sam And Grandma Josephine and your Uncle Sam were right there to guide you safely over and take care of you.

I know that I'm suppose to say Good Bye to You Stevie. But I can't. I refuse to do this.

Instead I say, So Long Until I see You and That Beautiful Smile of Yours Again.

I Love You, Dear Cousin.. Lynne

“ Nancy, Gina, and Nick, When I found out about my beloved cousin Stevie, my eyes instantly filled with tears and my heart is still heavy with grief. We had so much fun as kids at all our parties. I am regretful that we lost touch but losing touch never took away my love for him though. He was the best cousin I could ever ask for. Love jim
