

Valeria A. Wilmette

January 28, 1934 - November 6, 2015

Valeria A. Wilmette, of Joliet, IL at rest Friday, November 6, 2015, at Rosewood Care Center of Joliet. Born the only child of the late John and Julia (nee Golik) Wilmette.

Left to cherish her memory are cousins, Kay (the late James) Dickinson, Judy, Sue and Barb Booklund, Nancy O'Connell, Jacque Abbott; and many other relatives, her godchild, Lisa Carlan; and dear life long companion, John Machak and numerous life time friends.

Valeria was a graduate of Illinois State University and University of Illinois, she held her college friendships dear to her heart. A Speech Pathologist of District #86 who was dedicated to her profession, her colleagues and those entrusted to her care. She was a kind and compassionate dog owner and was one of the originals to be in doggie day care before it was a business. The Catholic Church and her faith were so much apart of Valeria's life that she left a beautiful example of what it means to be Catholic.

Our family would like to extend our gratitude to those who cared for Valeria over the past 2 years at Rosewood Care Center. She often said, "Rosewood is my home".

Expressions of sympathy may be directed to Holy Cross Catholic Church, or Will County Humane Society.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 14, 2015, at Holy Cross Catholic Church, Joliet located at 901 Elizabeth Street.□□□□ Interment will be private at Resurrection Cemetery, Romeoville.

Arrangements entrusted to The MapleFuneralHome,□Channahon. www.themaplefuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Valeria A. Wilmette

---

January 29, 2023 at 09:53 AM