

Walter C. Rosenow

February 27, 1929 - May 20, 2014

Walter Charles Rosenow died suddenly, on Tuesday, May 20 , 2014. Beloved Husband of the late (Angeline). Survived by his children, Christine, Richard (Jim Dvorak), Joseph (Marcy), Timothy(Yvonne) and Barbara. Adored grandfather and great-grandfather of: Arawn, Brian, Collin, Dylan, Jonathan, Megan, Savannah, Stephanie, and Vanessa. Fond uncle of many. Everyone considered him a true friend. He labored for those he loved. He spent his days enjoying life. He became an avid pinochle player, although he seemed to lose a lot of money (1.50 average). Recently he adopted the neighborhood cat (raccoon). He relished seeing and spending time with his grandkids and great-grandson. His final hours were spent doing the things he loved. He prepared lunch for Barb, bowled two games, went to the library, dropped off Barb for her afternoon activity and went to pick up a bottle of wine. He collapsed suddenly and eternity@ 5:17pm. Cherished memories and his corny jokes will live forever. Funeral services for Walter Charles Rosenow will be held on Saturday, May 24, 2014 at 9:15AM. at The Maple Funeral Home located at 24300 S. ford Rd Channahon to St Ann Catholic Church, Channahon for Mass of Christian Burial at 10.00AM Interment Resurrection Cemetery, Justice. Visitation Friday May 23, 2014 from 3:00 to 8:00 PM. For Info www.themaplefuneralhome.com

“ Just a short story that exemplifies the life and times of my dad.

My dad supported his children on the sports field his entire life. In fact I recall him tell me and my teammates after 1 game that “We stink and Joe, how can you strike out like that’.

Now that may sound a little harsh yet I should paint the scene for you. It was about 2 years ago; that’s right 2012 – and I was playing in an indoor men’s whiffleball league with my dad there to cheer me on. We came up a little short losing 19-2 and as we walked off the playing field my dad yells (with a smile on his face, a twinkle in his eye and with pure vocal joculariry) “You all stink and Joe, how can you strike out like that”. Try to visualize that; an 83 year old man making fun of his 45 year old son. How can you not smile and laugh. What a great dad. I love you and miss you already. JOE

*Dear Cousins,
I was shocked and very sad to hear of Uncle Wally's sudden passing.
He was a joy to everyone who knew and loved him and he holds a special place in my heart, together now with Angeline and Audrey, Marie, Rose, Buddy and Harry. What a group of angels to have on our side. I love you all and will miss your dad very much.
Love, Cris Casalino*
